

Improved Communications Seminar

Beginning March 2, 2010, Northwestern Toastmasters will offer an 8 session Improved Communications Seminar at Mayberry's, 50 Miller Street, Winston-Salem. The sessions will begin at 6:30 PM and end about 8:15 for 8 consecutive Tuesdays. The purpose is to assist adults in developing their speaking, listening, and thinking abilities for both prepared and impromptu situations.

Specific subjects covered in the Seminar are:

- | | |
|-------------------------------|---|
| Impromptu Speaking | Formal Presentations |
| Speech Organization | Effective Listening |
| Use of Humor in Presentations | Use of Visual Aids |
| Body Language | Constructive Feedback |
| Speech Language | Use of Notes |
| Group Discussions | How to Introduce a Speaker |
| Use of Voice | Controlling the Fear of Public Speaking |

Northwestern Toastmasters has been assisting members and attendees in improving their communications and leadership abilities for over 50 years. Northwestern is a local chapter of Toastmasters International.

Cost of materials for the Seminar is $25. Attendees will select and purchase their own meal.

For further information, contact Marcia Barney, DTM at 712-8183. Use the form below to register. Forms are also available online at www.NWTM.org.

-----Registration Form-----

Name: _____

Phone # _____ e-mail address _____

I would like to register for your Improved Communications Seminar that begins March 2 and continues for 8 consecutive Tuesdays ending on April 20. I have enclosed my check for $25 to cover the cost of the seminar.

Mail to (on or before 2/23/10): Northwestern Toastmasters
PO Box 534
Clemmons, NC 27012

